A new vision on 4 hands
piano world

EDITIONS

The 4 hands editions is one of the largest publishing projects by M.A.P. Editions, a first attempt in the publishing world to rediscover some forgotten treasures of the 4 hands piano repertory.

Edited by Rodolfo Alessandrini and Sara Bartolucci, the famous Duo Pianistico di Firenze, its aim is to publish the most significant works from the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries music, with particular regard to the rarity and the unjustly forgotten compositions of major composers such as Debussy, Ponchielli and Czerny. The biggest innovation of this edition is made not only by the new pieces rediscovered, but also by the overlapping first and second piano that facilitate, as never before, the performers consultation.

The sources, from manuscripts and first editions, ensure the full musicological reliability of these publication that counts among its composers, in addition to those already mentioned: Bargiel, Bruch, Czerny, Cramer, Dussek, Kalkbrenner, Moscheles, Pleyel, Ponchielli, Rubinstein, Ries, Soliva, Urspruch and many others.

CRITICAL EDITION

The editorial plan is completed and enriched thank to three critical editions of the complete works for piano 4 hands by Ignaz Pleyel, Anton Rubinstein and a brand new complete edition dedicated to Ferdinand Ries, famous pupil of Beethoven that is enjoying in recent times a wide rediscovery.

The plans of the critical editions is:

Ignaz PLEYEL:

Complete Sonatas vol. I

Complete Sonatas vol. II

Anton RUBINSTEIN:
